

Nundle Dog Race

At the Nundle dog race
there is a great steeple chase, where all breeds jump over hay with leads.

Different dogs are big and small
and some are very, very tall.

They run everywhere looking for food
while others aren't in the mood.

There are races and places you need to see so come where you are meant to be.

No. 6 Term 2 Week 2 9th May, 2013

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parents and Carers

The term has started off as usual, very busy. Of course the Dog Race took up a great deal of time for some people. Preparations for this huge day had been underway for months before hand and it is thanks to those who turn up to the P&C meetings and assist in the organisation and on the day that make it such a wonderful day. The day is getting bigger and bigger every year but unfortunately parent volunteer numbers are not increasing. We were certainly stretched on the day with the food serving areas relying on community volunteers to assist. The working bee on Saturday was great with a number of people turning up to clean the kiosk and assist in setting up the oval. It would be great if one year we could have all families have at least one person along to assist on the day. It would help spread the workload.

Most of the money has been counted and as mentioned, the takings are up by thousands of dollars on last year. The final figures will be available at the P&C meeting on Monday.

Nundle Public School—individual opportunities in a caring rural community

Discussions on how the funds will be dispersed for use by all students will be had at the meeting as well.

Students are continuing with music lessons, which is fantastic. We are aiming to have a performance toward the end of the year. Invoices for music lessons and school contributions will be sent out during this term.

We have quite a busy term ahead of us with NAPLAN occurring next week for years 3 and 5. The school cross country is coming up as are reports and a number of debates, excursions and tennis. Please keep your eye out for notes and send them in promptly when necessary.

We have scripture occurring again this term. If you have not already notified the school and you do not wish your child to take part in scripture lessons, please contact us and we will make alternate arrangements. Unless we are notified, all students take part in scripture.
